With more than 11,000 properties in its portfolio and managing more than 110,000 hours of care per week, it's integrated approach for older people is winning plaudits across the sector.

SOLVING THE CHALLENGE - TOGETHER

The shortage of integrated housing with care options to meet the growing demand of those in social need is a major challenge for local authorities with budget constraints.

The private sector is playing a positive and important role in solving the funding crisis. Our positive partnership is delivering positive outcomes for all stakeholders.

The public sector is unable to fulfil the demand for extra care housing alone.
