

STRATEGIC HOUSING FOR OLDER PEOPLE

Planning, designing and delivering housing that older people want

SECTION C: Bibliography and Key Resources

Introduction

This bibliography forms part of the Strategic Housing for Older People Resource Pack which is designed to support the activities commissioners, funders, providers and developers need to undertake to effectively plan and deliver housing for older people, and extra care housing in particular. Publications listed are referenced in the six briefing papers and associated tools and resources which form Sections A and B of this Resource Pack and which explore these activities in more detail.

About the Housing LIN

Previously responsible for managing the Department of Health's Extra Care Housing Fund, the Housing Learning and Improvement Network (LIN) is the leading 'knowledge hub' for a growing network of 5,700 of housing, health and social care professionals in England involved in planning, commissioning, designing, funding, building and managing housing, care and support services for older people and vulnerable adults with long term conditions.

For further information about the Housing LIN's comprehensive list of on-line resources and shared learning and service improvement networking opportunities, including site visits and network meetings in your region, visit: www.housinglin.org.uk

About the ADASS Housing Network

The ADASS Housing Network aims to represent the Association of Directors of Adult Social Services on all major issues as they impact on housing and our adult service users. It has a special focus on supporting people and personalisation and takes a careful interest and overview of policy and practice developments in supported and specialist housing for older people and vulnerable adults.

The Network comprises of adult social care directors and lead officers, many of whom also have housing responsibilities, reflecting the growing importance of linking housing and caring to other agencies within and beyond the local authority. For further details about ADASS, go to: www.adass.org.uk

About the Institute of Public Care

This resource pack has been authored by the Institute of Public Care at Oxford Brookes University. The Institute works with central and local government, private and voluntary sectors, Registered Social Landlords and the NHS in order to enhance their impact and effectiveness. This is achieved through analysis, evaluation and redesign of services, help with implementing change, skills development, information management, and knowledge exchange.

For further information about IPC's range of activities and publications, including its programme of activities to support commissioners, developers and providers of housing for older people and its certificate programme go to: <http://ipc.brookes.ac.uk>

The views expressed in this Resource Pack are those of the authors and are not necessarily those of the Housing Learning and Improvement Network or ADASS.
